You'd be hard-pressed to miss Qdesign in Chicago, as the works of the Oak Brook, Illinois, collaborative can be found in no fewer than seven Merchandise Mart showrooms. Among them are Arcadia, which is spotlighting the Aloft group of benches, distinguished by spare lines and a minimalist sensibility. The wood detail is available in maple, rift-cut white oak, or walnut, while the metal frame is offered in chrome, metallic-silver, and satin-black finishes. The 22-inch-deep, 20¼-inch-high model comes in two widths: 48 or 60 inches. And if you like what you see, ask about coordinating lounge seating and occasional tables.
